Casting Weekend-Special Edition

Welcome to the first special edition of our newsletter which I have prepared to record what a great weekend we had even though I have never camped in winds like we had on Friday and Saturday.

Special thanks must go to Terry Ellis for the manner in which he organised this weekend. So much attention to detail was necessary and Terry ticked all the boxes.

Of course we must also thank John Coles for coming up to St Clair and having the skills and patience in difficult conditions to pass on techniques and tips to help with our casting.

I apologise if I have missed some names but Tania did a fantastic job with the catering and my scales confirmed this when I got home.

Finally well done to all who attended. Although we are a fishing club and this was a weekend to learn- socially it was a great trip and confirmed just what it is that makes our club special.

Special thanks also to Terry for rescuing me from a barbed wire fence when I got a hammy cramp half way through!

Special Edition Wrap Up

That's all for now.

Great to record a fantastic event.
